The Cong'l church was filled to its utmost capacity by the audience that assembled last Saturday evening to listen to the Rt. R-v. A. C. A. Hall, Bishop of the Diocese of Ver-mont. He was accompanied by the Ray, Dr. Harris, who conducted the Episcopal form of worship, after which Bishop Hall preached worship, after which bishop Hall preached from Luke 2:40 "And the child grew and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon him." In the sermon, which was a most practical and helpful one, he clearly defined the difference between being childlike and childish, and spoke of the beauties of childlike love and obadience to Christ.

A Happy Time at the Baptist Church. About New Year's time the ladies of the Baptist church issued invitations for a Birthday Party and Church Roll Call: meeting to be given Thursday, Jan. 9. The special sig-nificance of a church birthday party was indicated by the f. llowing rhyme:

"This birthday party is given to you; 'Tis something novel; 'tis something new. We send you each a little snek. Please either seed or bring it back, With as many cents as you are years old,

(Nickel or silver we'll take, or gold) The sum we promise shall never be told." About one hundred and fifty of these invitations were sent, largely to members or friends of the church tiving near; but a few of them went to those who are separated bundreds or even thousands of miles from their native town, but who still remember with I yal hearts the church of their younger days.

Nearly all responded to the invitation in person, and there was a most erjoyable meeting of friends in the church vestry, where a bountiful and deleious repast was a rved at noon-young ladies from the town and Normal Schorl acting as waiters. After all had done full justice to this, Hon. I. L. Pearl, as tonstmuster, called the company together, and a few of the witty responses from absent friends were read by Mrs. Jed Pearl. Then the toastmaster introduced Dr. Waterbury of the Normal school, who essended appropriat ly. referring to the work of the ladies in making the church more comfortable and beautiful. and wishing them abundent success in carry-ing on that work. Dr. Vaughan of Chicago spoke of his own pleasure in being present and of the ab ent friends whose thoughts were with the friends gathered there. The pastor. Rev. N. C. Saunders, made brief and ap-propriate remarks. Miss Eston of the Normal faculty, when called upon by the toastmaster, spoke of the teachers' appreciation of the work of the churches, since by the moral standard which they maintain the town is rendered the admirable place which it is for a

The roll-call was responded to by nearly all the church members, both present and absent. The "Birthday Party" was a very pleasant occasion for all who were fortunate enough to be present, and it also added about sixty dollars to the sum which the ladies al-ready have on hand, to be used for needed improvements within the church.

It was not the intention of the correspondent to question the decision of Justice Smith in the report of the case last week, as has been thought by som, but to give the facts of the case as near as possible with our under-standing of them. We do not intend to judge, but simply to chronicle events. Mrs. R. S. Warren died quite suddenly last Monday night of heart disease. She had ben in poor health for several months but had apparently been feeling much better for a week or two, and had retired for the night without a warning of the nearness of the end, which came as peacefully as though but a continuance of her carthly sleep.
